Arizona will adopt her constitution on the first of December.

Italy has decided to take no part in the World's Fair.

The King of Wurtemberg died on Tuesday last.

Two silver senators will be quite an inducement for the admission of Arizona.

It is rumored that Ex-Governor Cheney, of New Hampshire, will succeed Redfield Proctor as Secretary of War.

A rumor is in circulation that the Utah Southern intends to build their road south from Milford to connect with the Arizona Midland at Ash Fork.

Mexico, so long under a peaceful republican form of government, is showing signs of uneasiness, and a revolt in that portion of the country is not unexpected.

Henri Rochefort, the great French editor, demonstrated his friendship for General Boulanger by the number and tone of the articles eulogizing the dead General.

Arizonans should feel proud of the splendid work done by the framers of our constitution. It ranks with the best in the land, and is the basis of a grand commonwealth.

Princess Kaiulani, heir to the Hawaiian throne, is a comely looking young woman, in great contrast with the fat, well-fed representatives of this monarchy of late years.

The European war rumors are still rumbling and promise to amount to nothing more than to furnish a little healthful exercise for the brains of the diplomats.

Ex-Congressman W. W. Morrow, of California, President Harrison's appointee to succeed Judge Hoffman as Judge of the United States District Court, took the oath of office at San Francisco on Monday last.

The chances for a race between Wm. R. Hearst's steam yacht Vamoose and any of the swift craft in the east are not good. It is probable that Mr. Hearst will soon order her to sail for the placid bosom of the Pacific.

Arizona University, at Tucson, has supplied itself with all kinds of material for the testing of ores, to give practical illustrations to scholars in its school of mines. At present it seems that the school will be a grand success.

The broth into which Judge Murphy, of San Francisco, has got himself, has for some time been simmering, and now promises to boil furiously at almost any moment. It is a nasty judicial disgrace of which every one is ashamed.

Boss Buckley may be blind but he can see the difference between Canada and the United States—what he lacks in might he evidently makes up in feeling. He seems very comfortable in the boddies' booth, Canada, and was never so valiant.

The Queen of the Sandwich Islands is in the grasp of a disease from which her physicians pronounce recovery impossible, and plotters and schemers are already working to throw the islands under British rule. The Queen is suffering from organic disease of the heart.

Colonel T. A. Dodge, the well known authority on military subjects, says "we have had our share of strife, both foreign and domestic. Since the revolution there have been wars with England and Mexico; with Tripoli and Algiers; broils with Paragua and Corea, and a gigantic civil war; rumors of wars with France, Spain, England and Italy. There have been the John Brown raid; the Barnburner and Fenian raids to Canada; many incursions across the Mexican border, and the filibustering expeditions to Cuba and Nicaragua. We have had the Whiskey and Shy's rebellions; the election, draft, reconstruction and sundry serious city riots; we have had well on to two hundred deadly Indian fights and many awful massacres. We have lost more men in active war since 1776 than any nation of Europe. This is a startling record for a peaceful people."

The Tombstone Prospector is a power in the land on the statehood proposition. Success to it is our wish.

The Tombstone Prospector makes the proposition to divide the offices between the two parties and making a combined fight for admission.

There are many offices of the Federal government that need to be reconstructed. At least they need a Democratic head—the body is all right.

That valiant old pioneer, our first delegate in congress, Hon. Chas. D. Porter, is booming statehood in his numerous articles in the press of Arizona.

Dr. Plutarco Ornelas, Mexican counsel at El Paso, discredits the reported massacre of two hundred colonists by Indians in the state of Hidalgo, Mexico.

As the time for the election in Chili approaches the chances for Jorge Montt to become the next President increase. It is believed he will be successful.

Thirty-three policemen have been added to the force in San Francisco the other day. It takes a good man, mental moral and physically, to pass the rigid examination prescribed by the San Francisco authorities.

One of the most exciting and dramatic scenes following the Chilean revolution is described in the Examiner of Tuesday last. It is the details of the bold attempt of a mob to storm the American consulate in order to wreak vengeance on the Balmacedan refugees who were given a safe harbor by Minister Egan.

Dr. Morse and Dr. Miller, of the German hospital in San Francisco, recently performed an operation on a patient named Frederick Locher, who was afflicted with the strange malady called hamophylia, or, to put it more simply, a bleeding at the nose, which threatened to cause his death. The operation consisted of lifting up the entire right upper jaw and locating the seat of the disease. The capillaries were well cauterized and the patient is practically cured of the dread disease. Verily, the strides taken in the past fifty years in medical science is beyond the credence of ordinary mortals, and undoubtedly fifty years hence will mark as much of an advance in the science as has taken place in the fifty preceding.

The additional cost of a state government is so trifling that it is not worth talking about. The Journal-Miner takes us to task about adding a heavy burden to the already overtaxed people. Now, let us look into the matter from a business standpoint. The additional cost has been figured at about $46,000, one-sixth of one per cent. on $28,000,000 (the total amount of taxable property in the territory) is a little more than $46,000. Now, for sake of illustration, we will say John Doe has property valued at one thousand dollars. The tax rate in this county is $3.30 on the one hundred dollars. Therefore Mr. Doe would have to pay the sum of thirty-three dollars tax. Had he to pay the additional "burden" it would just cost him $1.66 2/3 more or a total of $34.66 2/3. With $28,000,000 of taxable property the additional cost of a state government will be one-sixth of one per cent. The amount will be so small that at the present time it will not be noticeable by taxpayers. Should our assessment roll run up to $70,000,000, as acting governor Murphy says it should, we wonder if the kickers could find the additional cost with a microscope.

The Arizona Enterprise, until the election of delegates to the constitutional convention was a warm advocate for the admission of Arizona as a state. Now the paper finds an excuse in the irrigation clause of the constitution to attack the work as a whole. We have always given the Enterprise credit for fairness and should be loth to see it drop away from the advocacy of statehood at the present time. All fair-minded papers admit the constitution as framed to be a masterpiece of legislation. The judiciary, instead of consisting of seventeen judges, as stated in the above named newspaper, consist of three supreme and three circuit judges, and instead of paying $60,000 in salaries to these officials only the sum of $22,500 will be paid. Expert calculators figure the cost of maintaining a state government over the present at one-sixth of one per cent. At present all the counties in this territory pay the district judges more or less salary for holding court in the various counties. The probate courts remain the same. Streams suitable for irrigation or navigation belong to the state, as it should. Where the kick of the Enterprise man comes in is rather misty.

DENTISTRY.—A. N. Brown, dentist, who visited Kingman some months ago, has returned and is located at Ed. Harrington's. Persons wishing to see him will please call soon.

J. G. Boue, a druggist at Dunmore, Pa., says he has never sold a medicine that gave such universal satisfaction as Chamberlain's Colic, Colera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and that the large demand for it has been a great surprise to him. It is sold here by H. H. Watkins.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Ever since the establishment of the first paper on the bay of San Francisco, which we believe was the "Alta," removed from Monterey in 1843; the inhabitants of the Coast generally have been interested in the news from San Francisco. The "Alta," like many other pioneers of '43, has succumbed to the inevitable and gone over to the great majority, and, like other pioneers, has been succeeded by younger generations. The "Examiner" has taken perhaps the most prominent place in the newspaper field of late years, and its Weekly edition is very generally taken by those who want an interesting and reliable paper published at "The Bay." Everyone is familiar with the Premium Offers made by Mr. Hearst, the "Examiner's" enterprising publisher, and it is only necessary to say that this year the aggregate value of the premiums—of which there are 5,000—is $100,000, which are distributed among all the subscribers to the paper. In addition to these premiums, which range in value from 50 cents to $1,000, every subscriber receives one of the four great premium pictures, which will be mailed to him in a tube direct from the "Examiner" office as soon as the subscription is received:

"The Retreat from Moscow," by Meissonier.

"The Roman Carriot Race," by A. Wagner.

Each of these pictures is 21x23 inches, and they are elegantly reproduced in fac simile, showing every tint and color of the great originals, either one of which could not be purchased for $500.000.

"Women and Children First," by C. Napier Henry
"Christ Leaving the Praetorium," by Gustave Doré

Each of these pictures is reproduced in photograph, size 21x23, and eminently fitted for framing, and will adorn the walls of the most refined home.

The subscription price of the "Weekly Examiner" is $1.50, and descriptions may be sent either direct to W. A. Hearst, Publisher, San Francisco, through the Local Agent of the "Examiner" or the Postmaster.
